BLACK DIAMOND

Centerville High School

To each of the Seniors our High School has had an individual meaning: an awakening . . . a challenge . . . a step toward a future goal . . . new interests . . . discovered talents . . . deep friendships. We remember the little things . . . the first football game . . . the lyceums . . . music rehearsals . . . the sound of the marching band practicing on clear fall mornings . . . skits at pep assemblies . . . long talks in the halls . . . those special meeting places . . . the cheering section at a basketball game . . . Bob's long hours at athletic practices . . . red sweaters with the black "C" . . . the Prom . . . Senior Banquet . . . the blur of maroon robes . . . familiar and loved faces at graduation.

The Black Diamond which you are about to inspect is, in the opinion of the staff, different from any other volume previously published at CHS. But its purpose remains the same: TO BE AN INDIVIDUAL CREATION OF THE SENIOR CLASS, PROCESSED BY THAT CLASS, AND TO INCORPORATE WITHIN ITS PAGES, A LASTING RECORD OF THE LIFE DURING THEIR SENIOR YEAR AT CENTERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

Seniors Have Busy Year

September began with the usual flurry of picking up the year's subjects and being sure all requirements are fulfilled. The football season began with three victories and the seniors took their last ITED tests.

October saw Suzanne Stuber and her attendants, Kathy Klum, Linda Cathcart, Linda Swab, and Sharon Snodgrass crowned in the Homecoming festivities. The month continued with class elections where the class chose as their officers for the year: Lyle Linder, president; Harry Butler, vice president; Linda Swab, secretary; and Kathy Klum, treasurer.

November ended a good football season for thirteen seniors. The Y-Teen Thanksgiving chapel was a special one for the seniors since it was their last. During Thanksgiving vacation several seniors participated in the All-State Music Festival.

December continued with an exciting basketball season. The Student Council Christmas chapel was very impressive and the seniors again took an active part.

January brought the end of the first semester and that mad dash of last minute tests. The seniors headed the honor roll at the end of this period.

February ended a tremendous basketball season with the team making history at CHS as the first undefeated team in a season's play. Gary Allen was chosen "Prep of the Week" by Brad Wilson of the Des Moines Register.

March found many seniors picking out their choice of colleges or vocations. They found time creeping up on them.

April began with Career Day. Various state contests were also held during this month. All had a successful year in contest competition. The golfers dug out their clubs and the track boys found their winged shoes. And the Honor Society held its annual banquet for the senior members.

And finally May began with its usual excitement. This was the home stretch for the class of 1959. There was the banquets, the Prom, the Senior trip, Baccalaureate, and finally, that long awaited commencement ceremony. And so ended the busy year for the Class of 1959.

Charles Anthony served as Editor-in-Chief and photographer and Linda Swab served as assistant editor. The staff is composed of Senior and Junior assistants.

The Cadettes have had another fine year making several appearances. During the fall they marched for the Charles City Industrial Days, Centerville Pancake Day, and the State Square Dance Festival. Later in the year, they appeared at the Iowa-Minnesota basketball game, and the Girls' State Basketball Finals.

The Cadettes, under the direction of Mrs. Merle Houser, do precision marching to drums and records in regular straight lines and circle formation. They march without leader or signal doing a variety of slide, kick, and shuffle steps. The group consisted of 40 in the fall for outdoor marching and was out to 16 for inside. They have three regular Cadette drummers.

The CHS Concert

The CHS band, under the direction of Mark S. Kelly, had a membership of 74.

The first appearances were as a marching band at the three football games. The band also marched in parades.

In November the band made its first concert appearance when it participated in the Iowa Music Educators' Convention at Des Moines. Other concerts included a Christmas concert, the Gower clinic, two "Pops" concerts, and the annual Spring concert.

Fourteen of the band members also took part in the All State Bank or Orchestra.

Various soloists and ensembles competed in the State Music Contest. They also played for many of the clubs and organizations in Centerville.

A Pep band provided music for pep chapels and basketball games.

The Freshmen enjoyed themselves immensely at the "Mixer" put on for them in November by the Sophomores.

At 8:15 the bus arrives . . .

Some go to band . . .

School Daze

And others draw . . .

Then its time to type . . .

Or try a hand at smoothing boards . . .

And then a bit of cramming . . .

Try a bit of blueprinting . . .

And recite on "Civil liberties" . . .

School Daze

Practice typing from dictation . . .

And finally its time for chow . . .

Back to work again to fix machines . . .

Or prepare that "after-lunch" snack . . .

And to study (?) English lit . . .

Then its up to physics . . .

School Daze

And back to study hall . . .

A try at Spanish grammar . . .

And mix a few chemicals, too . . .

But at last, its 3:31!

There's bound to be funny business with those three.

Miss Foot guards the hall!

Caught by the Camera

Is that you, Irene?

Faster Claire!!

Smile girls! (and Roger)

Attentive ushers.

Soft job!

Ah, won't it run?

After the Bell Rings

How sweet!

They wanted in the picture page.

Dusty?

Don't hide, Kent.

Lovely curls, Bob!

Innocent looking, isn't he?

Extracurricular

Mice?

Old campaigners.

They posed for this.

Thinking?

Farewell

High school days are over, and we linger upon these scenes so familiar, so important. Here at CHS we have spent our youth-filled moments, and here, too, the first phase of our youth must end. It is time to turn the page, close the book, and go on to the next chapter in our lives.
