Foreword

Here within this cover is the only place where the class of 1958 will ever be together again after graduation. Only here in this book will the clubs, the band, the choir and the teams continue to meet and live in their glory.

So we present this book, not only to the students of the present, but also to the alumni of the future with the hope that some time in that far-off future it will help to bring beautiful memories of this, one of the best years of our lives.

Introduction

This was quite a year—with Mr. Miles, the new superintendent, Mr. Johnson, our new principal, the Junior High on third floor, the Russian Sputnik, a good football season, the Asian flu epidemic, the shocking death of Professor Miller, the wonderful band trip to Chicago, a fine basketball team, speech contest, music contest, track, golf, baseball, prom, victory chapel and graduation. We lived, loved, and learned all the way through this our year of 1958.

Administration

Our administration this year shows familiar faces, but some of them in new places. Now that Mr. Miles is superintendent, he has not been participating in our high school activities as much as when he was principal, but has taken over his new job very smoothly. Mr. Johnson, in his new job as principal, is one to whom everyone feels he can go with his problems.

We realize nothing can operate properly without leadership and we think that we have the finest with which to begin our book.

Seniors Bid Farewell

In the fall of '54 a group of young people entered a new world, the realm of high school. They were a mass of "green little freshmen," most of whom were shy and quiet at first. But they have changed through the years, for now they aren't the least bit shy and definitely not quiet.

As school began this fall the seniors elected these officers: Richard Larsen, president; Nancy Kelley, vice president; Kathryn Bryant, secretary; and Judy Walker, treasurer.

Looking back through the years seniors remember how much fun they have had going to school, attending games and dances, and participating in various clubs and organizations.

But now they must look ahead, for once again they are entering a new world. They must now think of the future and their aims in life. Upon graduation this class will scatter; some will go to college, some to work, and others will marry; but they all will remember their days at GHS.

Directing the Juniors in another enjoyable year were Robert Harbour, president; Kathy Klum, vice president; Linda Swab, secretary; and Ken Boyer, treasurer.

The Juniors entered into sports, music, dramatics, and clubs with enthusiasm. Probably the highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom, which the Juniors planned. Most of the money was raised by the collection of dues.

As a result of furious campaigning, Jim Craver was elected by the freshmen to lead their class. They chose Linda Larsen to be vice president, Jean Traxler as treasurer, and Sally Oehler as secretary.

The class voted to raise money by collecting dues, which are a dollar a year.

Organizations

Art Club

The Art Club had another busy year at CHS. Beth Lindsay, president, presided at the regular monthly meetings. Other officers were: Beth Lotridge, vice president; and Neva Hoover, secretary-treasurer. The members painted a mural for the Art Room, under the direction of their sponsor, Mr. Luehrman. Other tasks included making posters for high school clubs and activities.

For each basketball game, the Club furnished a large frame like this one for the players to run through when coming on the floor.

Pep Club

The Pep Club has done a great job of supporting the basketball team this year. Through two candy sales the Club has financed eight out-of-town trips. At the beginning of the school year, the girls sold basketball schedule pencils to help with the financing of the trips. The school spirit was increased by the making of signs and posters, which were taken to all the games.

The president of the Pep Club is Judy Van Noy. Other officers are as follows: Mary Ann Cramblit, vice president; Linda Swab, secretary; Dianne Holland, corresponding secretary; and Barbara Buban, treasurer.

F.F.A.

The F.F.A. is an organization for boys interested in farming. Their activities this year included participating in a Rodent Control contest with Albia, exhibiting at the county and state fairs, purchasing six Shropshire sheep, and selling garden seeds and Aresol Bomb products. Five members attended the National F.F.A. Convention at Kansas City, Missouri; and two senior members were nominated for the Iowa Farmer Degree. On February 20 a Parent-Son Banquet was held.

The officers this year are as follows: David Scurlock, president, first semester; Dick Stickler, president, second semester; Gary Biles, vice president; Dick Stickler, secretary; first semester; Wayne Sheston, secretary, second semester; Dean Perkins, treasurer; Gary Crow, reporter; and Harold Moore, sentinel.

Future Homemakers of America

Carol Bradley, Jean Hoover, and Anetta Printy wrap Christmas gifts for nursing homes. Something funny, girls?

This year the goals of the F.H.A. were to promote better family living and to help individuals with family and community problems.

The main event of the year was the district meeting in Centerville, which was conducted by Carol Bradley, district president. "F.H.A. Joins Hands Around the World" was the theme of the meeting.

Outstanding programs included a talk about ceramics given by Carol Bradley, and a program honoring the F.H.A. seniors.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses had another successful year at school. Mrs. E. A. Larsen and Anna Olson, school nurse, served as sponsors. The members attended the Federal Nurses Convention at Waterloo and planned a field trip for May. They visited the County Homes at Christmas. Speakers at the monthly meetings included many local registered nurses. A mother-daughter tea was planned for the spring.

Officers elected at the second semester were, left to right: Jo Ann Barbaglia, secretary-treasurer; Carol Fox, president; Linda Larsen, vice president; and Sharon Seals, program chairman.

Honor Society

The National Honor Society is based on four cardinal principles: Leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Members are selected to the organization on the basis of these principles.

New members were initiated during the Honor Society chapel in September. Junior and probationary members held a banquet in April, honoring the senior members.

Programs during the meetings of the first semester included a debate on the segregation issue; information about the International Geophysical Year; and a panel discussion concerning colleges.

Officers during the first semester were Ronnie Staley, president; Dick Larsen, vice president; Susan Oehler, secretary; and Kathryn Bryant, treasurer.

Second semester officers were Charles Anthony, president; Lyle Linder, vice president; Linda Swab, secretary; and Sharon Snodgrass, treasurer.

Librarians Club

The Librarians Club centered its year's work around a theme of "Service to Others." The librarian's daily duty is to help students in securing books and materials. They also keep the library in working order. Under the direction of Mrs. Miskimins, the experienced librarians help train the new girls to be efficient workers. The members of the club are divided into three committees—Program, Public Relations, and Social, with each carrying out their respective duties. Their social activities included a picnic in the spring and a party.

Officers elected were, left to right: Dixie Wakefield, vice president; Bonnie Fekitek, secretary-treasurer; and Katherine Buttel, president.

Euclidean Club

Any student who has an interest in mathematics can join the Euclidean Club. Some of the aims of the organization are to encourage more students to further their education in the field of math, to look into the possibilities of a future in mathematics, and occasionally to give its members a look at the lighter side of math.

EUCLIDEAN CLUB OFFICERS: Lyle Linder, president; Carol Earhart, secretary; Kenny Boyer, vice president; Garry Wells, treasurer; and Linda Strandberg, corresponding secretary and historian.

During the year several club members qualified for membership in Mu Alpha Theta, a national mathematics honor society for high school juniors and seniors and junior college students. To join this organization, students must have maintained at least a "B" average in all subjects, in addition to taking advanced math courses. Mu Alpha Theta members are Bob Harbour, Sharon Snodgrass, Sharon Seals, Carol Earhart, Linda Swab, John Bryan, Mary Ann Cramblit, Lyle Linder, Garry Wells, Ken Boyer, Suzanne Stuber, and Judy Luckman.

Student Council

The Student Council, which is the governing body of CHS, is composed of members elected from each home room and from each organization.

Homecoming was the highlight of the year, for which the Student Council planned everything, including stage decorations, the chapel program, crowning of the Queen and her attendants, the tea for guests, and the Homecoming dance. To raise money for this big event, the Council members sold shakers, Homecoming buttons, and CHS pennants. Also Student Council members checked wraps, and sold candy and cokes at basketball games.

Student Iowegian Staff

The CHS weekly newspaper is printed as a page in the Centerville Daily Iowegian, appearing each Wednesday during the school year. The advisor is Mrs. Dane Simmons.

The staff meets seventh hour to plan and write the paper. The Student Iowegian brings news to the community as well as to the students.

Youth Council

The Youth Council is an organization of junior high and high school students representing the young people who use the Community Center. The group discusses the problems of the Center, plans parties and dime dances, and buys the records. The main projects this year were redecorating the Center and the Valentine Dance.

The officers are: Kathy Klum, president; Dave Little, first vice president; Dianne Holland, second vice president; Carol Fox, secretary; and Patsy Walker, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wright are the directors.

LINDA CATHCART District President and Local President

Y-Teens, which is a branch of the Y.W.C.A., is open to any high school girl. Linda Cathcart was president of the CHS club this year and was also president of the Southeast District of Iowa. Other CHS officers were Mary Ann Cramblit, vice president; Franceen Close, secretary; and Carol Fox, treasurer. Miss Jean Foot is the Y-Teen advisor.

Y-Teen activities for the year included the initiation of new members and a picnic in September; a Slave Day; the Thanksgiving chapel; a taffy pull; selling peanuts, and a carnival to raise money; a Mother-Daughter tea; and a ceremony honoring the senior girls, and installation of new officers.

It's All Over Now

Black Diamond Staff

Starting last September, the Yearbook Staff began taking pictures and gathering information for this year's annual. Sam Bowen and Susan Oehler, co-editors, worked many long hours in preparation. Judy Broshar served as sales manager. The Staff is composed of Seniors and Junior assistants.

Credit for taking and developing all the pictures in the annual goes to Otto Bratz, local photographer, and Sam Bowen, staff photographer.

Activities

The Cadettes have had another fine year making some interesting appearances. Last fall they marched at the Corning Centennial and Centerville Pancake Day. In January they appeared at Iowa Wesleyan College, and on March 1 they marched at the Iowa-Michigan State basketball game in Iowa City.

The Cadettes do precision marching to drums and records in regular straight lines and circle formation. They march without leader or signal doing a variety of slide, kick, and shuffle steps. The group consisted of 36 in the fall for outdoor marching and was cut to 16 for inside. They had three regular Cadette drummers.

The Cadettes had new uniforms this year. They are basic black long-sleeved leotards with skirts, collars, and cuffs of black and red sequins. The uniforms have added much color and class to the appearance of the Cadettes.

Cheerleaders

The Centerville High School Cheerleaders carried the school spirit to every game. Jo Houser, their sponsor, helped them with new cheers, and Judy McDanolds was head cheerleader. At the first basketball game, Chief Big Red was introduced and, in his Indian costume, created a greater enthusiasm for the game. Also a jug was given each week in Pep Assembly to the class with the best school spirit. Regular cheerleaders were Linda Mishler, Mary Milani, Irene Ritter, Suzanne Stuber, Michele Wehrle, and Judy McDanolds. Substitutes were Judy Lauser and Marsha White.

Band Receives Honors

February 16, 1957—The band received a much envied invitation to the Midwestern Bandmasters' Clinic in Chicago, December 18-21.

September 3, 1957—A new day and a new year began for the Centerville High School Band. As usual there were the pep band and marching band who played bravely through both the football and basketball seasons.

Thanksgiving, 1957—Fourteen of the luckier members participated in the concert of the All-State Band and Orchestra, with many holding high positions.

December 18, 1957—The band was off to the Mid-West Band Clinic in Chicago. This trip was the climax of many long hours of practicing and concerts in Iowa and Missouri. The long hours were worth while because their concert in Chicago established their fame not only in Iowa but in the U.S. as one of the finest high school bands in the country.

February 7, 1958-The annual Pops Concert again delighted you with its varied program.

April 10, 1958-The band closed the year with the annual spring concert.

May 27, 1958—The senior members of the band meet for the last time as another school year comes to a close, a year of many honors for the Centerville High School Band.

Mixed Chorus

This year the Mixed Chorus under the direction of Don Gunderson, the Girls' Glee Club and the Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Perry Jones, made a number of successful appearances. They began the year with their annual Christmas Concert, and then in the spring, in addition to the annual Spring Concert and Music Contest, they attended a Music Festival at Washington, Iowa.

Selected students took part in All-State Chorus during Thanksgiving vacation. In the spring the small groups attended Contest at Davenport.

The Big Reds blasted their way to a tremendous record—7 wins, 1 tie, and 1 loss this season. Their only defeat came at the hands of Winterset on a muddy, cold field. The Big Reds also had just recovered from their siege of the flu. The Reds' attack was both through the air and on the ground featuring the power of All-State fullback Joe Kovacevich and junior quarterback Bob Thomas.

Seniors starting this year were Joe Kovacevich, Jerry Malin, Don Stark, Jim VanNoy and Dick Larsen. Joe Kovacevich made All-State and Bob Thomas, Harry Butler, Don Stark, and Dick Larsen received honorable mention.
